

For Release: January 6, 2020

Contact: Donna McFarlin 615.742.4200
dmcfarlin@srvhlaw.com
Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, PLC

Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison Names Two New Members

Nashville, TN – Mary Balthrop and Eric Osborne have been named members at Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, PLC, announced Tom Sherrard, founding member of the firm.

Balthrop's practice areas include real estate and commercial lending, corporate and non-profit organizations. Balthrop previously served as Secretary & General Counsel at the Dallas Museum of Art, where she was part of the Museum's leadership team. Prior to that, she was an associate in the commercial real estate group of the Dallas office of Baker Botts LLP.

She earned her J.D. at the University of Virginia School of Law, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif. She earned a B.A. in Sociology at Rice University in Houston, graduating magna cum laude.

A native of Austin, Texas, Balthrop and her family live in Ashland City.

Osborne focuses his practice on the firm's Antitrust and Cost Recovery, complex commercial litigation, and white collar/civil investigation practices. Prior to SRVH, Osborne was an associate with Sidley and with Andrews Kurth.

Osborne earned his J.D. at Stanford Law School in 2010, where he served as chair of the graduate student council. He graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity, and received his undergraduate degree from Amherst College. Osborne serves as a board member of the Presbyterian Foundation, the Medical Benevolence Foundation, and the Nashville Wine Auction. In 2019, he was appointed to the newly-created Emerging Leaders Council of the Legal Services Corporation (LSC).

Originally from Memphis, Osborne and his family live in Nashville.

Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, founded in 1981, provides legal services to businesses and individual clients in a wide variety of litigation and corporate practices. The firm is home to thirty-eight attorneys and is located in the Pinnacle Building in downtown Nashville. For more information, please visit www.srvhlaw.com.

#

For additional information: Deborah Varallo, Varallo Public Relations, 615.482.6444; Email: deb@varallopr.com