The Villas & Villages of Palladio’s Veneto

Travel with Will Cannady

WILLIAM T. CANNADY has been a teacher at Rice University since 1964. Will holds joint teaching assignments in the Jones Graduate School of Business and the George R. Brown School of Engineering in addition to serving as a visiting lecturer and critic at the many distinguished institutions. Will was awarded the Educator of the Year Award from the Houston Chapter of the AIA in 2010. He is a past president and member of the Houston Philosophical Society, former member of the Advisory Board of Med Center Bank and Frost Bank in the Texas Medical Center. He recently served on the Real Estate and Master Site Plan committee of the Menil Collection. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps for eight years and is an Eagle Scout. In his architectural practice, Cannady has designed and built over two hundred projects. His firm’s work has been honored with sixty design awards and has been published in local, state, national and international periodicals and journals.
Tour Highlights

- Join Study Leader William T. Cannady, Emeritus Professor, in this exploration of Italy’s Veneto region, meandering between classic Palladian villas, sumptuous private homes, picturesque vineyards, and captivating villages.
- Study Andrea Palladio’s architectural masterpieces, from La Rotonda to Villas Barbaro, Cornaro, and Emo, with the option to sketch at many of these locations.
- Dive into the history of the Northern Italian Renaissance and the ruling families whose patronage generated pivotal works of art and architecture.
- Visit the 17th-century private villa/home of a count whose family has lived there since the early 1800s.
- Explore the tiny, walled town of Castelfranco, with its hidden Giorgione altarpiece.
- Discover a picturesque villa in the Monte Berico hills with its beautifully preserved Tiepolo frescoes and stately gardens.
