

RICE ALUMNI

VIRTUAL LIFE AFTER RICE: GRADUATING INTO A RECESSION

Presented in partnership with the Center for Career Development

DR. MARY KATHRYN CAMPION '84

Dr. Mary Kathryn Campion is the founder and president of Champion Capital Research, a research oriented institutional investment management company. The firm's clientele includes public defined benefit and corporate defined contribution plans, as well as foundations and non-profits. Dr. Campion has held the position of adjunct faculty for the Center for Fiduciary Studies at the University of Pittsburgh since 2007. She also lectures and teaches at local universities, such as Rice University's Glasscock School and the University of Houston. Dr. Campion's board and council positions include the Houston

Symphony Orchestra and Rice University's Initiative for the Study of Economics. She is a member of the National Association for Business Economists, American Economic Association, Association for Investment Management and Research, and of the Houston Society of Financial Analysts. Dr. Campion has received her B.A. from Rice University and M.A. from University of Houston. She completed her PhD course work in Economics at the University of Houston. She is a certified Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and Accredited Investment Fiduciary Analyst (AIFA).

LEONARD CHAN '07

Leonard N. Chan (Lovett 2007) is a management analyst and accreditation manager for Houston Fire Department and currently chairs the Texas Center for Public Safety Excellence Consortium. He was also a recent candidate for the Texas House of Representatives in March 2020. Before his time with Houston Fire Department, he served in a similar role with Cedar Park Fire Department and as a policy analyst for Texas Sunset Advisory Commission. He co-chaired or chaired the Young Alumni of the Association of Rice Alumni-Austin from 2012 to 2017 and has been designated a Lovett Associate since his return to the Houston region. Chan graduated magnum cum laude with a B.A. from Rice in political science, religious studies, and history as well as a Masters of Public Administration from University of Houston. Distinctions include the Rice University Builders Award, Cedar Park Fire Department Distinguished Ribbon Award, and the Fort Bend County Women's Center Volunteer of the Year.

RICE ALUMNI

VIRTUAL LIFE AFTER RICE: GRADUATING INTO A RECESSION

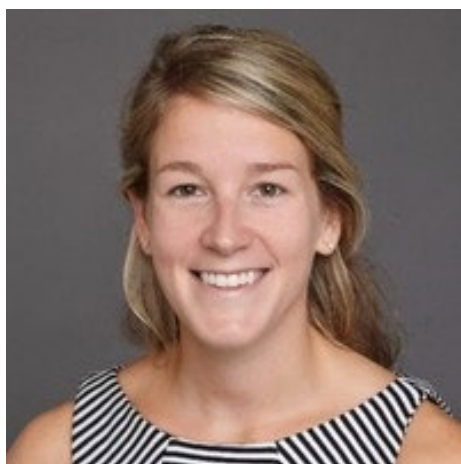

Presented in partnership with the Center for Career Development

LILA HOLZMAN '09

Lila Holzman manages the Energy Program at As You Sow, where she represents investors in engagements with companies on issues related to climate change and associated harms. Lila's previous experience includes working in the residential solar industry, serving as a sustainable agriculture volunteer in Panama with the Peace Corps, implementing a clean cookstove pilot in Ghana, and interning with the United Nations Global Compact. She currently serves as President of the Board of Directors of the Northern California Peace Corps Association. In 2020, Lila was named one of the Peace Corps Community's top 40-under-40. Lila holds an MBA from The Wharton

School, University of Pennsylvania with a focus on Environmental & Risk Management as well as an undergraduate degree from Rice University where she double majored in Environmental Engineering and Policy Studies.

KATHRYN SORTE '08

Ms. Sorte graduated with a BA in Psychology from Rice in 2008. Following graduation, Ms. Sorte worked for two years as an oil and gas software consultant in Houston before enrolling in Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Health, where she received her MPH. Since graduating with her masters in 2012, Ms. Sorte has worked for the Greater New York Hospital Association, a trade association comprising of 160 hospitals and health systems throughout New York and other states, where she serves as the Director of Grants and Programs.

RICE ALUMNI